300 Children Take to the Woods In Little Rock Easter Egg Hunt

By BOB TROUTT,
(Democrat Staff Writer.)

It was a big day for 300 Little Rock kids as they scampered through the high grass and thick clover behind the baseball diamond of Lamar Porter Field in search of treasure left by the Easter Bunny.

There was comparatively little chatter coming from the mouths of the youngsters when they were given the go-ahead for the hunt. This search for treasure was serious business with them, especially since the treasure was more than 2,000 candy Easter eggs.

MUDDY WORK — Linda Faye Miller, five, 405 S. Martin, found the Easter egg hunt muddy work after she fell into a drainage ditch filled with water as she raced across Lamar Porter Field in search of the golden egg. (Democrat Photo.)

But everyone found his share and those who were just a little slow pouncing on the many colorful eggs nestled in the grass were given a little assistance from the grown-ups supervising their quest for riches.

This year's municipal Easter egg hunt was held yesterday under the sponsorship of the Women's Auxiliary of the Little Rock Boys' Club.

Despite stormy skies and predictions of showers during the hunt, a large crowd of children and parents turned out to see what the Easter Bunny had left.

Age Classes.

The hunt was held for children in three age categories: a midget class for children under eight, a junior class for those from nine to 12, and a senior class for kids from 13 to 15.

Aside from the hidden candy eggs, the searchers looked for a golden egg, a silver and a speckled egg in each age class.

To the finder of a golden egg went a baby rabbit, while a silver egg brought two yellow ducklings and a speckled egg two baby chicks.

Not all the hunters had Easter baskets. Some put their candy treasures in paper sacks, while others stuffed their pockets and mouths as fast as they found eggs.

In addition to the grand prizes, five huge cakes covered with tasty icing and shaped in the form of Easter animals were awarded as door prizes.

Surprisingly enough, the midgets were the first to find the gold, silver and speckled eggs, which were hidden in a separate area from the older youngsters.

Falls in Ditch.

One little girl was in such a hurry to get on with the hunt that she failed to notice a small drainage ditch filled with mud and water as she raced across the field. She fell in, came up covered with mud and leaped to her feet, heedless of her fall as she ran to catch the other kids.

In the midget division, Nancy Stewart, 309 Schiller, found the golden egg; Linda Harkins, 1804 Brown, located the silver egg, and Phillip Bryan, 2616 Jefferson, found the speckled egg.

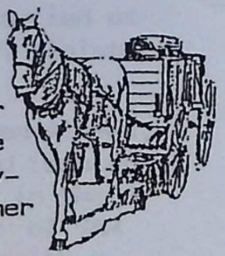
The war came to a close and SAMUEL HUMBIRD went home to Whitfield Co., Georgia, where the land was devastated from the fighting that had occurred there. But, he was a man of the soil, so he slowly brought the land back to life. He cultivated the fields in order to grow crops to provide for his growing family.

He and MARY JANE remained in Georgia until around the year 1868, when he took his family and moved to Missouri by ox wagon. There they settled in the Ozark Mountains, near Thorfield, Ozark County. SAMUEL's brothers, Aden and John, and sister, Sarah also moved to Ozark County, Missouri.



In Missouri, SAMUEL received a homestead and farmed as he had all his life. Plus, later he and his sons ran a blacksmith shop and freighting business.

SAMUEL bought MARY JANE a small posket knife to cut her tobacco with, and she lost it out of her apron pocket, while working in the garden. She got the change, she had been saving and sent one of the youngsters to the store to buy another knife, so SAMUEL would not know she had lost it.

Children of SAMUEL DALTON & MARY JANE (BLAKELY) HUMBIRD:

Casswell Wilson - born in 1859 in Bradley County, Tennessee. He married Nancy Joan Mahans on 9 November 1879, in the home of her father, K. D. Mahans. The marriage was performed by S. B. Teemster, Minister, in Ozark County, Missouri.

1880 Census Ozark County Missouri

Humbird, Caswell age 20 farmer birthplace Tenn., Nancy wife age 20 birthplace Missouri, married during the year.

Casswell died in 1888, the story is he he was running hogs, got hot, sat down in the snow and died of "quick TB". He is buried in the Humbird Family Cemetery.

Samuel Jefferson - born in 1861 in Poke County, Tennessee. He married Mary Addaline Evan, who was born in 1853. They were married at Robert Evans home, (her father), by Samuel B. Teemster, Minister, in Thornfield, Ozark County, Missouri.

Samuel Jefferson Davis Humbird (Jeff) was killed by Shed Aikens, on 18 November 1896. The following is from Jim Humbird (son of Jesse Aden & grandson of Jeff): "Jeff Humbird was hit in the head with a grubbing hoe by his sister, Sarah, daughter of SAM HUMBIRD, during a dispute over a sorghum molasses mill with a man named Shed Aiken, husband of Sarah. Jeff during the scuffle had Aiken down and was giving him what for, and he yelled for help. Picking up the grubbing hoe, Sarah struck Jeff a glancing blow on the head. "Hit'em agin, Sarah," Shed pleaded; and she did, splitting her brother's head into halves. They loaded his lifeless body on his wagon, pointed the team in the direction of home, whipped the horses in their rumps and yelled, "Hyah! get". The runaway team covered the road down through Dry Holler in nothing flat. The animals and wagon pulled into the barnyard, which fronts on the road, a few minutes later, to be met by Jeff's now widowed wife, Adeline and sons Jesse Aden age 11 and Martin age 14."
"Sarah's husband, Shed Aiken, assumed full responsibility for the murder because assumed the legal authorities would not bother her if he skipped out. He did, and was seen from time to time in the harvests of Arkansas just across the border a few miles from Ozark County."
Shed Aiken was never convicted and Sarah got an annulment.

Charity is the one I would love to get info on. Especially a picture. That would mean a lot to me. I really don't even know who else is related to to her that might have info for me. I believe she might be a relation of the Mantooths some how inTenn. Would love to figure that puzzle out. She is in a couple of books in the Library called Cherokee by Blood. Where she applied for her indian number here in Missouri but never went back for her interview, I assume because she was to bring witnesses back with her to verify that info and she had moved here from Tenn and had no one to take.That is just what I think might have happened. Have fun at the reunion and please give the family a great big hello for me. Try to get more of them to come this way again so we can share info again. I really enjoyed meeting all of you. The " HumBIRD " branch wishes you all a wonderful time. Come to the Show Me State and visit a while. Does any one know why we never knew about all of you? Or that we even originated from Tenn. All I ever knew was that Charity was indian. The mystery continues.................

Dear Sharon,

Yesterday I worked the KY table at the Genealogical Jamboree held in Pasadena, CA. I just had to write to tell you the most delightful story about our Hancocks that I learned from a lady "womaning" the England table. I asked her what the story was behind their being buried in a shroud of sheep wool. She told me that a law had been passed in that area that said that everyone had to be buried in sheep wool or linen due to the wool and linen trades. It seems that when the law was first passed (year not told me) extended families went in together to purchase a sheep wool. When a person of any of those participating families died, the sheep wool was laid over the body and the sheriff or other high personage would view the sheep wool over the body and verify that the person was being buried according to the law. Then, just before the body was lowered into the grave the sheep wool was whisked off and saved for the next participating family member's burial.

I just had to share this with you! It is so practical, yet I love the element of defeating the powers-that-be!

Hope all is well with you.

Best Wishes,

Edie Faris

"INTERED INTO REST"

MARY J. WRIGHT

Mary J. Wright was born June 24, 1850, and departed this life on January 23, 1923; aged 72 years, 6 months and 29 days. On December 5, 1872, she was united in marriage with Rev. W.Z.T. Kimbler. To this union ten children were born, six of whom were called to their reward before her, leaving four living: Mrs. Mary L. Heaton, John T. Kimbler, Mrs. Laura J. Frankum and Mrs. Edith Jones; also one step-son, W.H. Kimbler, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her lass. At an early age she was converted to Christ and united with the Sharon Baptist church, in Polk township, of which she was a charter member,and remained a faithful and loyal member until death. This was indeed a sad parting, as on January 15, Icy Kimbler, her only single daughter, who was at home, was called to her reward, and on January 19, Mrs. Dicy Wright, another daughter who lived near the old home, passed away, making the third death in the family during a period of only eight days. But to the bereaved ones heaven will only be dearer now to them, as they have so many loved ones over there. May heaven's richest blessings be on the bereaved ones in their great sorrow. The funeral services were conducted by writer at the home on January 24, 1923, at 3:30 p.m., and interment was made in Downing cemetery, to await the resurrection morn.
